Prof. Zhu Zuoyan Successfully Concludes his Visit to Germany

The opening ceremony for the Sino-German Exhibition on Achievements in Science and Technology was held by the Sino-German Center for Research Promotion in the Bonn Science Center on Mar. 2. Before the ceremony, this exhibition had been shown in 7 renowned universities in 7 cities of China, attracting over 20 thousand teachers, students and researchers and winning a favorable response. From this March, it started its 5-city tour in Germany with Bonn as the first stop. Prof. Zhu Zuoyan and Prof. Winnacker hosted the opening ceremony together and about 500 people from scientific and research institutions, universities and governmental departments in charge of scientific and technological affairs in Bonn or its surrounding areas participated in the event. Prof. Zhu and Prof. Winnacker spoke highly of the S & T achievements in China and Germany and hoped that more and more people may take part in this co-operation and exchange so as to make new contributions to the friendly exchange and S&T progress of both countries.
