

The First China–US Symposium on Nanoscale Science and Technology held in Beijing

May 17-19, 2004, the First China-US Symposium on Nanoscale Science and Technology, co-sponsored by NSFC, CAS and NSF, co-chaired by CAS Vice President Bai Chunli and US NNI Director Mike Roco, was held in Beijing. Over seventy participants from China and United States exchanged the frontier achievements and development and discussed the cooperation between China and US in the area of Nanoscale science and technology. Prof. Wang Jie, Vice President of NSFC, attended the opening ceremony and made an address.

(Chen Wentao)

Vice President Zhu Daoben met with Prof. Peter J. Stang

April 12, 2004, Prof. Zhu Daoben, Vice President of NSFC, met with Prof. Peter J. Stang, Member of the National Academy of Sciences of US, Member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and distinguished Professor of the University of Utah.

(Liu Xiuping)